

The Hockey PlayersEdge

Giving Kids the Learning Tools to Improve

Sports LearningEdge is pleased to announce this special program customized for each District of USA Hockey. Now every District can get their own PlayersEdge site just like the one used by the NHL. The site is free...giving every coach, kid and parent unlimited access to the latest tools to improve. The addition of a unique Fundraiser program for your local leagues and teams will make this invaluable for everyone.

“There are many cool sites on the internet that deal with various aspects of hockey. Sports Learning Edge has a great site at; www.sle hockey.com.”

“This site was developed to help parents and coaches provide their kids with the learning tools they need to quickly become better hockey players, athletes and individuals in the ways they learn best”.
